Meet a NASSCO Member!

Dear NASSCO Member

We are thrilled you are a part of the leading organization for the sewer service industry, an association that for more than three decades has helped the industry prosper by upholding its commitment to setting the standards for the rehabilitation of underground utilities.

A survey of NASSCO members conducted in September 2007 found that “networking” was the most valuable member benefit, followed closely by training and education. In addition to our annual meeting, ongoing commitment at the industry’s top trade shows and numerous training and education opportunities that enable members to network, we are beginning a new regular feature in NASSCO Times to enable members to network virtually.

Meet__________! is a new feature column in NASSCO Pipeline designed to introduce both new and existing members. This special column gives NASSCO members added exposure by enabling members to network virtually and share viewpoints on issues facing the industry. In addition to being a regular feature in NASSCO Pipeline, Meet_______! will be included on the NASSCO web site.

Anyone can participate, and we hope you will. The process only takes a few minutes. To be featured in an upcoming Meet__________! column, simply answer the questions below and send your responses to me – Dawn Jaworski - at dawn@nassco.org. Be sure to include your full name, contact information, company and title. Limit each response to approximately 50 words and please be sure to upload a photo of yourself along with your email responses.

If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to contact me at dawn@nassco.org.

I look forward to hearing from you!

Best Regards,

Dawn Garner
